

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
BMW CENTER FOR GERMAN AND EUROPEAN STUDIES

EDMUND A. WALSH SCHOOL OF FOREIGN SERVICE

THE INSTITUTE of TURKISH STUDIES

“Secularism, Islamism, and Women’s Rights in Turkey”

with

Prof. Serpil Sancar

Visiting Scholar

George Washington University

Monday, November 12

12:00 pm-2:00 pm

Intercultural Center 450

Serpil Betül Sancar is a professor in political sciences and gender studies in Ankara University, Faculty of Political Science. Her most recent book is titled “Gender of Turkish Modernization: Men for State-Building, Women for Family-Building.” She teaches courses on Political Sociology, Global Political Dynamics and Social Movements, Gender Regime of Turkish Modernization History, Gender and Political Theory and Gender Equality Policies.

RSVP

<http://serpilsancar.eventbrite.com/>

Please contact Phoebe Wood at cgesevents@georgetown.edu with any questions